

God's Gifts to His People

Text: Isaiah 41:19

Let us look at some of God's gifts to His people:

I. He Gives Serenity

"Fear thou not; for I am with thee" (Isa. 41:10).

A. Many Christians lack the peace that God wants them to have. They fail to accept His peace by faith.

B. The assurance of God's presence brings peace. He promised, "I am with thee" (Isa. 41:10). Let us believe it. Receive God's peace today (John 14:27).

II. He Gives Security

"Be not dismayed; for I am thy God" (Isa. 41:10).

A. Many people seek security by acquiring substantial bank accounts, stocks and bonds, real estate holdings, and cars, but still feel insecure.

B. Security is not found in temporal accumulations, but in God who created the heavens and the earth. He said, "I am thy God" (Isa. 41:10). That's security (Phil. 4:19).

III. He Gives Strength

"I will strengthen thee" (Isa. 41:10).

A. Many Christians fall short because they lack the strength to perform the tasks God has given them to do.

B. We must accept by faith and with thanksgiving the strength God has promised to give us (Phil. 4:13).

IV. He Gives Stamina

"Yea, I will help thee" (Isa. 41:10).

A. Stamina means: "STAYING POWER, ENDURANCE" - Webster.

B. God didn't promise to do everything for us, but He did promise to help us through hardships. We must rely on His Word and believe that He is helping us now (Isa. 41:13).

V. He Gives Stability

"Yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness" (Isa. 41:10).

A. Many Christians are weak and unstable. They rely only on their own strength.

B. Stability comes from God. He has promised to "uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness" (Isa. 41:10). We need to keep on praying, trusting, and obeying. God will do the rest. He is our great stabilizing force.
